

Minister of State
(Multiculturalism and Status of Women)

Ministre d'État
(Multiculturalisme et Situation de la femme)

Ottawa, Canada K1A 0M5

I am happy to extend greetings to all those taking part in this service of thanksgiving. This celebration marks the 50th anniversary of the delegation to Ottawa seeking to make Canada's immigration policy open to Black people from the Caribbean.

J'aimerais offrir mes salutations à tous ceux et celles qui prennent part à cet office d'action de grâce. Cette célébration commémore le 50^e anniversaire de la Délégation venue à Ottawa pour réclamer l'inclusion des Noirs des Caraïbes à la politique d'immigration du Canada.

Changes to our immigration policy are important landmarks in our history. We are grateful for the leadership of citizens like Donald Moore, who have encouraged the development of equitable and inclusive Government policies. Thanks to their commitment, Canadian society has become increasingly open to diversity. In turn, our country has been enriched by the contributions of Black people of Caribbean origin, along with those of people who have immigrated here from all over the world. Multiculturalism is a source of our vitality and strength as a society.

As Minister of State (Multiculturalism and Status of Women), I would like to commend the members of the Donald Willard Moore Scholarship Fund Committee for their continued support of Black students in Mr. Moore's honour.

Enjoy the celebration!

The Honourable Jean Augustine, P.C., M.P.
L'honorable Jean Augustine, C.P., députée

Bonnes célébrations!
